

Genevieve.txt

From: blakbird@maine.rr.com%inter2 [blakbird@maine.rr.com] on behalf of blakbird@maine.rr.com
Sent: Friday, February 25, 2005 5:14 PM
To: Torres, Francine

dear Francine Torres

I support the recommendations from the National Organic Standards Board Livestock Committee from February 1, regarding pasture requirements.

Pasture is good for the health and welfare of cows and other ruminants, and it should not be dropped as a requirement from the organic standards and this requirement should be more enforced by the USDA.

peace

genevieve